Dressage:

Training level test 3 and above will be ridden in a 20 x 60 arena Training level test 2, Intro classes and USEA classes will be ridden in a 20x40 arena.

Para Classes:

1. Level 1: Beginner needing maximum support. The participant is benefitting primarily from the movement of the horse. He or she may be minimally controlling or communicating to the horse. The horse is controlled by a handler and typically sidewalkers act as additional supports.
2. Level 2: Beginner needing moderate support. This participant is able to stay balanced on the horse most of the time and is beginning to communicate through the use of the four natural aids. A handler is still in control of the horse and this participant may or may not have additional support, such as sidewalkers.
3. Level 3: Intermediate participant needing only minimal support. This participant has a strong grasp of the aids and is able to apply them effectively most of the time. He or she may or may not have sidewalkers, a horse handler or spotter assisting him or her.
4. Level 4: Intermediate to advanced participant with minimal or no support. This rider can control the horse without physical assistance and is able to effectively apply the natural aids. He or she may have no leader or sidewalkers or only a spotter.
